

Robin Hood

Robin Hood was a young guy living in the woods with his friends. They all work as woodcutters.

Robin was a very intelligent boy with a great sense of humor. He was an extremely skilled archer and always held a bow and an arrow.

His friends were a group of outlaws and criminals who hid in the woods.

They all lived in Sherwood forest in Nottingham. Forests were known to be dangerous places. People who go through forests usually got robbed or killed.

Robin Hood used to rob people who get into the woods. The story says that he only robbed rich people so that he could give the money to people in need.

Robin had many enemies. He was also wanted and police worked hard to get him into jail but never succeeded.

The poor loved Robin and he was their idol. He is still a well-known lovable hero in many cultures around the world.
